

Joan Camerlengo continues to expand

Joan Camerlengo, broker and owner of Joan Camerlengo Realty, LLC, is pleased to announce that Irene Rivera, licensed real estate saleswoman, has joined the Camerlengo Realty sales team, solidifying the company's commitment to delivering outstanding customer service.

"I have known Irene for several years, and I was impressed by her work ethic, her bubbly personality and her energy," said Joan Camerlengo. "I am extremely happy to be able to add Irene to the Camerlengo Realty team because she is bilingual, which enhances our ability to serve Spanish-speaking customers and clients."

Irene, a consistent top producer with a solid referral base, brings more than seven years of real estate sales experience to the firm. She and her husband relocated from Brooklyn nearly 10 years ago.

They were attracted to Staten Island because of quality of life, affordable housing and educational opportunities for their children.

Many of the residents of Celebration at Rainbow Hill know Irene as the "Project Manager," a position she held for approximately five years. Irene acquired her real estate sales license soon after and joined a franchise office. During the course of her seven-year association with that office, Irene was recognized time again for her high level of sales production.

When asked why she decided leave a franchise office to join an independent firm, Irene said she wanted "more flexibility and opportunity," and she "felt that she could advance her professionalism," being associated with Joan Camerlengo Realty.

Irene's stated goal is "to help as many people as possible to achieve the American dream of home ownership." She wants her customers to experience the same excitement and gratification that she and her husband felt when they closed on their first home.

Irene's hobbies include interior decorating and painting. Irene and her husband, Adrian, reside in Manor Heights.
